Christopher Pitts

Raised in Wisconsin Dells, Christopher Pitts' passion for photography began in the darkroom at the University of Minnesota in 1998. His obsession for photography and design lead him to the Kalahari® Resort where he works as a graphic designer and in-house photographer in the Marketing Department. Christopher can tell a story by combining stylistic elements of graphic design, fine art and photojournalism in his wedding photography.

With 12 years of dedication to the art of photography, Christopher possesses extensive Photoshop® skills which he uses on your best images making sure everything is perfectly in place. As a Photoshop® specialist he excels at making photos look their best without looking touched up. Christopher will take special care of your photographs so you can cherish your wedding day memories forever.

In his free time he likes to take family trips to the west coast or local parks, research old photography methods, and snowboard with his son Parker.
